

Watch, Listen and Sing - Listening and Singing the Poem

EN5120A

Play the video of the poem and allow students to listen to the song for a couple of times. In this manner, familiarity with the target language is built. After they have watched and listened to the poem, teacher may sing the lines and ask the students to repeat after her/him, using proper intonation and pause. Or, students may also be asked to repeat after the audio.

Process: When students are allowed to watch the video of the poem along with the audio, they are able to make association of the different pictures with the corresponding word in English. Teacher may also pause in between and ask simple questions to test their listening and comprehension skills. After students have listened to the poem and the teacher has ensured their comprehension, they may be asked to repeat and sing after the video that they have just watched.
